

Discovery all set to launch ‘Ladakh Warriors’

KOLKATA, Dec 9: 15,000 ft, the young Ladakhi boys only dream of being the human shield to protect their country. It is a story of determination and love for the motherland. Narrated in Hindi by the Indian equestrian, actor and nature & wildlife enthusiast, Randeep Hooda, the show depicts the grueling training that the Snow Warriors go through, at one of the highest regimental centers in the world. Ladakh Warriors: The Sons of the Soil is streaming now on discovery+.

On lending his voice for the show in Hindi, Randeep Hooda said, "I have always been in awe of Ladakh's beauty. However, associating with this show, I am now equally mesmerized by the stories of these warriors, who come with a determination towards their country and train in such extreme conditions only to be able to protect their land. It's a great initiative by Discovery and I am glad to lend my voice and take this story to every corner of this country." (PTI)

Shot in the stunning backdrop of rugged desert mountains, Ladakh Warriors: The Sons of the Soil is an exciting and immersive film that will give the heroes of mountain warfare the attention they deserve. Born with larger lungs and genetically conditioned to fight at heights of over
